

Sample Consultancy Clause

Upon the termination of the Employee's employment with Better Golf, Better Golf shall have the sole option to retain the Employee as a ____-time consultant in the FIELD OF CONSULTATION (defined above). In the event that Better Golf desires to retain the Employee, the Employee shall hold himself or herself available for ____ (__) years for not more than ____ (__) hours per month, for which Better Golf shall pay the Employee ____ percent (__)% of the Employee's monthly base pay at the time of termination of the Employee's employment with Better Golf, whether or not the Employee shall be called upon to render actual services in any such month for which the Employee shall be paid. Employee shall render such advisory and technical consultation assistance as Better Golf shall request, provided that such assistance shall not exceed the number of hours per month agreed upon hereinabove. During the period that the Employee shall serve as a consultant for Better Golf, Employee shall not accept any employment with or render any services, directly or indirectly, to a CONFLICTING ORGANIZATION (defined above) within _____, nor shall the Employee, independently or otherwise, engage in any services or the use or manufacture of any CONFLICTING PRODUCT (defined above).